Plagiarism:

As explained in Chapter 2 of the SUU General Catalogue, “the university’s goal is to foster an intellectual atmosphere that produces educated, literate people. Cheating and plagiarism are at odds with this goal and therefore will not be tolerated in any form. All work submitted by a student must represent that student’s own ideas and effort. When the work does not represent the student’s own work it must be properly cited; if it is not, the student has engaged in academic dishonesty. Cheating, forgery, plagiarism or the use of work belonging to another are all considered academic dishonesty...Except in cases of major offenses, responding to academic dishonesty is the responsibility of the instructor of the course in which the violation occurs. If a student is found responsible for academic dishonesty, the student may be dismissed from the class and may receive a failing grade. Other penalties may include suspension or expulsion from school. Such transgressions become part of the student’s permanent University record.” My policy, based upon the Plagiarism Statement found in the SUU Guide to English Composition, entails a failing grade for egregious cases of intentional plagiarism/academic dishonesty or for the failure to remedy instances of unintentional plagiarism after being warned about it.
